

People Say “Have an Easy Fast” on Yom Kippur

There will be many people at temple. People who know each other may wave or shake hands.

A lot of people at temple will say "have an easy fast." When people say "have an easy fast" they mean: I know you are not eating today, and I hope you don't feel too uncomfortable.

If I see a person I know I can try to say "have an easy fast."